Dedication

S.K.S.S. Ayurvedic Medical College, Sarabha is dedicated to the Great Martyr Kartar Singh Sarabha who sacrificed his life in the prime of his youth for the freedom of India. The institution is situated in his native Village SARABHA (Distt. Ludhiana) Punjab. This is the land where this great revolutionary was born on May 24th 1896.

At that time no one knew that he will emerge as a hero in the fight for the freedom of India against the British Empire. He passed his matriculation examination from Malwa Khalsa High School, Ludhiana. He was sent to America for higher studies by his grandfather. It shows that he belonged to a rich family but comforts of the riches were of no value for him. He rather adopted a path where the dignity of the motherland became everything for him.

In America he joined the Ghadar party under the partnership of Baba Rulia Singh who also belonged to village Sarabha. Kartar Singh started working at "Yugantar Ashram" the party office based in San Francisco, USA. There he played active role in publishing & circulating the party newspaper named "Ghadar weekly" very soon his name ranked among the top leaders of the party, of which Baba Sohan Singh Bhakna was the founder president, Lala Hardial was the General Secretary Raas Bihari Bose & Bhai Randir Singh Narangwal were also very much active members.

In June 1914 the party planned to return to India & take effective part in the freedom struggle. It was a secret plan but due to betrayal by one of the party members, the plan failed. As a result many party members were arrested & killed. Kartar Singh however was intelligent enough to reach India via Sri Lanka. On (March 2, 1915), due to another betrayal Kartar Singh was arrested at Sargodha along with two of his close associates. A conspiracy case was filed against them prosecuted in a court held in Central Jail, Lahore. Ultimately they were hanged in Lahore on November 16, 1915.

At that time Kartar Singh was the youngest in the party. Just 19 years old but his sacrifice made him the greatest martyr, hence Kartar Singh became SHAHEED Kartar Singh. We salute him who brought honour to his native village Sarabha & inspired many others to develop patriotic spirit in them.

May his sacred soul shower his blessings upon us.
